

Please do not let the banks use a loop hole in the law to become a pest again. I enjoy not having solcitors calling at all hours. By letting banks do this it would open up the door to others also. This would take the teeth out of our no call law.